

Course Three Curriculum

My Defence

Answering Islamic Critiques of the Bible - Christian Apologetics

Rev. Bassem Adranly

Note: This course is neither accredited by a university nor designed academically.

- This course is still being recorded and will start being added weekly to the website soon.

In this course you will learn what the most common Islamic arguments are and how to lovingly respond to them in truth so as to draw your friends one step closer to knowing Christ.

Each lecture will deal with one or more arguments/critiques commonly raised by Muslims in everyday discussions. Following the analysis of each Muslim argument, the biblical response and applicable Bible passages will be provided. In order to help you learn how to structure a strong answer, the lecturer will focus on training you to apply what was learned in the previous courses, such as apologetic skills, Quranic verses, Hadiths or things said by Muslim scholars.

Below is an example of one of these arguments:

“You say Jesus is God and that he died on the cross, so how can you claim that God died?”

All arguments will be divided into three categories and each category will be covered in one of the sections of the course:-

Section 1: Christ / Redemption

Section 2: The Bible

Section 3: Social Issues
